

Ministers

Rev. Dr. Shane Green
Rev. John Fugh, Jr.

St. Paul Church of Columbus is seeking an interim Director of Music for our congregation. St. Paul Church was formed in 1858 in Columbus, Georgia and worships in the Wesley Tradition. We are a vibrant congregation of 800 active members seeking an interim organist and/or choral director. The interim position may be shared between two professionals, so please let us know if your interest is limited to the interim organist or choral director duties.

Duties will include:

- Leading music (to include playing the organ) for two traditional services on Sundays – 8:30 AM and 11:00 AM
- Conducting Chancel Choir practice - Wednesday night
- Conducting Handbell Choir practice – Wednesday afternoon
- Selecting music for Chancel and Handbell Choirs
- Arranging ensembles for Sunday 8:30 AM service
- Selecting prelude and postlude music

Competitive pay commensurate with training and years of experience.

If interested, please provide your resume to Shannon Land at
