

WEEKLY BULLETIN

2101 WILDWOOD AVENUE, COLUMBUS, GA 31906

In January, the start of the new year always presses us toward thoughts of beginnings—fresh calendars, new commitments, hopeful restarts. It is fitting that the Church's calendar anchors this time of the year with the naming of Jesus, a reminder that the true beginning of Christian life is not our resolution but God's declaration.

Before Jesus ever spoke a word, he was given a name that means Yahweh saves. Furthermore, before he performed a single act of ministry, that name was confirmed as he came up out of the water following his baptism. New beginnings for God's people always start with God's initiative, not ours.

Luke reminds us that Jesus received His name on the eighth day, a biblical symbol of new creation. In Jesus, God begins again with humanity by writing restoration into our story even before we know how to ask for it. Christian renewal, then, is not about personal achievement but about surrendering to the One who names us and calls us His own.

As you begin a new year, consider that God has given you a name: Beloved, Redeemed, Chosen, Called. Much of the spiritual life is learning to live from the identity God gives rather than the identities we try to earn. When this truth sinks in, the year ahead becomes less about striving and more about receiving.

We, the St. Paul staff, look forward to this new year and what will become. We pray for all the ways that God's Kingdom will break forth bringing peace and wholeness. As we step into this new day, let us do so with a holy expectation and embrace who we are in Christ.

White and gold are used this Sunday as we observe The Baptism of the Lord in the season after Epiphany. White symbolizes divine light and purity as we celebrate Jesus' baptism and the beginning of his public ministry. Gold reflects Christ's glory and kingship, echoing Epiphany's theme of Jesus revealed to the world.

EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

Beginning January 18, St. Paul will offer relationship-building classes called Strengthening Our House during the Sunday School hour in the Fellowship Hall. Led by counselors Amy Buchanan and Erin Harkey, these sessions will focus on nurturing and strengthening healthy relationships. Don't miss this opportunity for Christian growth—and feel free to invite friends! Dates and topics are listed below:

KIDMIN MOMENTS

Come to the River: John the Baptist was born to help people get ready for Jesus. He taught others to turn back to God and baptized them in the Jordan River. When John baptized Jesus, God spoke from heaven and said that Jesus is His beloved Son. John's special job was to point people to Jesus and help them recognize who He truly is.

The children discovered the Brick Bible in the St. Paul library and were happily reading it!

The story of John the Baptist baptizing Jesus.

Also, just a reminder that Children's Choirs will start back Feb. 1.

SPY MINISTRY

Youth Reflection Sunday is tonight! Join us for this annual event, a beloved tradition! Students will reflect on the past year, respond to questions, and write a letter to their future selves. These letters are saved and returned to our students when they graduate as seniors—a meaningful moment you won't want to miss. Split SNY is back tonight...

- Middle School: 5:00–6:00 p.m.
- Snack Supper: 6:00 p.m.
- High School: 6:30–7:30 p.m.

TODAY'S SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR PRESCHOOL AND ELEMENTARY CHILDREN

Come to the River (Matthew 3:13-17)

Anchor Point – Jesus is God's Son.

Say the Bible verse together:

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." (John 3:16)

Questions for family discussion:

- Do you think it would be fun to live in the desert and eat locusts?
- What do you think locusts taste like?
- Why do you think John was chosen to prepare the way for the Lord?
- Why did Jesus need to be baptized?
- Why should we be baptized?

Prayer:

Dear God, we love you, and we find happiness in you. Amen.

Epiphany celebrates Christ revealed to the world—light shining to the nations, wisdom recognized, and glory made known. "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." Psalm 119:105

"We walk by faith, not by sight."

2 Corinthians 5:7
