

Instructions:

Thank you for your commitment to serve others in the name of Jesus Christ! Please indicate the ministries where you want to continue your current service as well as any new areas of interest. A ministry team member will contact you with more information. Please use one form for each member of your family (adult or youth). If you need additional forms, please call the Church Office, find them on our mobile app, our website, or pick another one up at the church. Return them by mail, by placing them in the offering plate, or by dropping them off at the church office.
